Background or Overview:

Catholic Relief Services (CRS) is implementing the second phase of the Water Smart Agriculture Platform (WSA 2) with activities in Honduras, Guatemala, Nicaragua, and southern Mexico with the following four objectives:

1. Support farmers to use crops that are not only adapted to climate change but also more economically attractive for market sales in order to diversify, stabilize, and increase production across the farm in mixed agricultural systems of annual crops, vegetables, tree crops, and livestock with WSA practices.
2. Strengthen farmer, youth, and women's organizations for collective marketing so they can produce the quantities demanded by markets and achieve solid profits to limit migration and accelerate the farmer-to-farmer spread of WSA practices.
3. Train and advise rural youth and young adults to enter the agricultural sector in production, transformation into agribusinesses, marketing, or agricultural services, to ensure the future of agriculture in Central America.
4. Adapt extension materials for access on mobile phones and electronic devices for the widest reach of WSA innovations within and beyond Mesoamerica, unrestricted by the costs and barriers of traditional in-person agricultural extension in the region.

CRS has a particular interest not only in increasing farm production but also in increasing the income of farming families to improve their well-being. Although farm income can come from different sources, for the purposes of this work, we recognize only the Net Benefits of productive activities on the farm where WSA 2 Project activities are concentrated.

Objectives:

Given the interest in the economic analysis of ASA2 activities, it is considered important to develop methodologies to: i) Evaluate the performance of the ASA 2 Project in terms of the objective of increasing the Net Benefits (NB) of productive activities on farms that are beneficiaries of the Project's activities, and ii) Monitor the trajectory of key indicators during the execution of the Project. For the purposes of this work, the target population (TP) will consist of 6,000 model farms and 5,000 satellite farms in the four participating countries. iii) Provide advice based on the results to prepare to meet the Indicator: "...By 2025, achieve an increase of at least 20% in the NB of agricultural productive activities for 50% of the beneficiary population."

Activities and Deliverables:

The minimum activities of the consultancy are:

A3.1 Development of the methodology to measure the compliance indicator under conditions of uncertainty in the value of the parameters used for the estimation of the Net Benefits (NB).

A3.2 Development of the methodology for identifying the main factors that affect the Indicator and their implications for researchers.

A2.1 Preparation of the final survey incorporating modifications identified during field validation.

A1.1 Calculation of the NB with the final information from the increased sample.

A1.2 Preparation of the final report with the initial and final values.

A.4.1 Analysis of the 2025 survey results and estimation of the intermediate compliance indicator.

A.4.2 Identification of relevant factors and their implications for researchers.

The expected deliverables of the consultancy are the following documents and tools:

1. Report with the methodology developed to measure the compliance indicator under uncertainty.
2. Final Mid-Term 2025 Survey for Beneficiaries tested and agreed upon.
3. Final report on the Net Benefit of the Farm at the baseline completed.
4. Report with the intermediate compliance indicator and the factors affecting it identified.

In consideration of the mutual covenants and promises set forth below, CRS and Consultant agree as follows:

Article I DUTIES AND TERMS

1. Scope of Services. CRS hereby engages Consultant to perform consulting services, as set forth in the attached Scope of Work (the "Services"), on the terms and conditions described in this Agreement. Consultant hereby accepts the engagement as a consultant to CRS and agrees to provide the consulting services set forth in the Scope of Work on the terms and conditions described in this Agreement.

2. Independent Contractor. Consultant shall provide services under this Agreement as an independent contractor, and not as an employee or agent of CRS or any subsidiary or affiliate of CRS (collectively, a "CRS Entity"). Nothing in this Agreement shall at any time be construed so as to create the relationship of employer and employee, partnership, principal and agent, or joint venture between Consultant and any CRS Entity.

3. Term of the Agreement. The term of this Agreement (the "Consulting Period") shall be determined by the Start and End dates indicated in the Project Information section of the Consultant Information Sheet, which is attached hereto and incorporated to this Agreement by reference. The Agreement may be terminated before the end of the Consulting Period only in the circumstances described in Article IV. In the event that CRS and the Consultant wish to extend this agreement beyond the expiration date, the parties will mutually agree in writing to the extension prior to the End date. Absent such written agreement, the Agreement will automatically expire on the End date.

4. Time and Attention. Consultant shall devote such time and attention to Consultant's duties under this Agreement as may be necessary to discharge the duties properly, and Consultant shall exert Consultant's best efforts in the performance of the duties. Consultant shall not be subject to a fixed work schedule, but shall be available, consistent with Consultant's personal needs and other commitments, to provide the services set forth in the Scope of Work during the Consulting Period. Notwithstanding this section, with regard to any and all dates and time periods set forth or referred to in this Agreement, the attached Scope of Work and the attached Consultant Information Sheet, time is of the essence.

5. Business Activities. Consultant's services under this Agreement shall not cause Consultant to be directly involved in the business operations of CRS. Consultant shall have no responsibility for the day-to-day management of any CRS Entity, nor shall Consultant supervise, or be supervised by, personnel of any CRS Entity. Consultant shall have no authority to execute any document or enter into any contract on behalf of a CRS Entity, or to bind a CRS Entity in any relationship with a third party.

6. Non-exclusive Agreement. CRS acknowledges and agrees that during the Consulting Period, Consultant is free to engage in other business activities or to provide consulting services to other parties without the approval or consent of any CRS Entity.

7. Reports and Data. All reports and data prepared by Consultant in connection with the services performed under this Agreement shall be the property of CRS and shall not be used by Consultant in connection with any other activity.

Article II

COMPENSATION AND EXPENSES

1. Compensation. As compensation for Consultant's services under this agreement, CRS shall pay Consultant in the amount, by the method, and in accordance with the payment period/frequency schedule stipulated on the Consultant Information Sheet, which is attached hereto and incorporated in this Agreement by reference. Consultant shall receive no other compensation for providing services under this Agreement. On an agreed upon basis, the Consultant shall submit to the CRS Contact Person an itemized invoice, preferably by email, for the Services, and/or any additional Services, based on the payment terms as set forth in the Consultant Information Sheet and any authorized expenses incurred. For any US bank used for payment, the Consultant can be paid by check or direct deposit and for banks outside of the US, the Consultant will be paid by wire transfer.

2. Equipment and Work Space. Consultant shall provide basic office equipment (including computer, fax machine, and/or copier) and work space at Consultant's expense as necessary to provide services under this Agreement. If it is necessary for Consultant to perform consulting services under this Agreement at CRS's place of business or using CRS's specialized equipment, CRS may provide temporary work space or may make available specialized equipment to Consultant to the extent CRS deems necessary.

3. Business Expense. Consultant may hire at Consultant's own expense, without prior approval of any CRS Entity, any assistants or other personnel necessary to enable Consultant to provide services under this Agreement. Consultant shall be responsible for any such business expense incurred by Consultant in connection with the performance of services under this Agreement. CRS shall not reimburse Consultant for any such business expense.

4. Other Expenses. CRS shall reimburse Consultant for reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the performance of the Services solely to the extent identified on the Consultant Information Sheet. Invoices for such reimbursable expenses shall be submitted to the CRS Contact Person identified on the Consultant Information Sheet for approval, together with all supporting documentation reasonably required by CRS, and CRS shall pay such invoices within thirty (30) days following such approval. Consultant shall maintain books and records supporting all reimbursable expenses incurred in connection with performance of the Services for the duration of this Agreement, and for a period of four (4) years thereafter. CRS shall have access during Consultant's regular business hours to such books and records of Consultant as required to verify any and all reimbursable costs.

5. Travel Arrangements and Expenses. In order to contain costs and to benefit from economies available to humanitarian organizations, CRS will arrange for and provide to the Consultant the travel reasonably required to perform the Services under this Agreement. Upon CRS' prior written approval, the Consultant may arrange for actual, reasonable, out-of-pocket expenses for such travel reasonably required to perform the Services under this Agreement and submit such expenses to CRS for reimbursement in accordance with the payment structure described above in Article II (4). Consultant shall be bound by CRS requirements and policies, provided, in writing, by the CRS Contact Person to the Consultant.

6. Severance and Benefits. During the Consulting Period, Consultant shall not be eligible to participate in, or to earn any benefit under, any employee benefit plan, fringe benefit program, bonus or incentive program, or other compensation arrangement of a CRS Entity (including, but not limited to, any comprehensive medical insurance, workers' compensation, disability insurance, accidental death or dismemberment insurance, life insurance, or any defined benefit plan or defined contribution plan sponsored by any CRS Entity). The preceding sentence shall apply throughout the Consulting Period even if Consultant is later reclassified as a common law employee for part or all of the Consulting Period. Consultant shall have no right to, and agrees not to, make any claim against CRS under any workers' compensation or unemployment compensation statute. Nothing in this Agreement, nor any payments made to Consultant under this Agreement, shall be construed to reduce any severance payment or other benefit to which Consultant is or may become entitled as a result of Consultant's employment by a CRS Entity before or after the Consulting Period. To the extent that Consultant is entitled to receive benefits under any compensation arrangement of a CRS Entity upon Consultant's termination of service, Consultant acknowledges that the terms of the compensation arrangement and applicable law will determine whether the distribution of the benefit will be postponed while the Consultant provides services under this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, CRS will not pay for nor reimburse Consultant for medical insurance or medical evacuation insurance.

1. Personal Contract. Subject to Article II, Section 3, Consultant acknowledges that CRS has contracted for Consultant's services in recognition of Consultant's knowledge and prior experience.
