Terms of Reference for Individual Consultant (IC)

Description of the assignment (Title of consultancy): Individual Consultant to act as Assistant Project Officer – Decade of Ocean Science for Sustainable Development

Project/Section Title: IOC/MPR

Modality and Period of assignment/services: part time (70 working days) over 7 months

I. Background

The implementation of the UN Decade of Ocean Science for Sustainable Development (“the Ocean Decade”) commenced on 1 January 2021. In order to achieve the ambition of the Ocean Decade, significant and sustained efforts will be needed to engage both existing and new philanthropic and private sector partners in the Ocean Decade. These partners are essential for their involvement in the co-design and co-delivery of Decade Actions, provision of resources to the activity and coordination costs of the Decade, and in raising visibility and awareness of the Ocean Decade within their respective networks.

The Ocean Decade team within the IOC Secretariat is seeking the assistance of a junior consultant (Assistant Project Officer) to support implementation activities and advise on the strategy to be adopted in advancing the Ocean Decade. The consultant will work closely with the Ocean Decade team and staff within the IOC to provide support to the implementation of the Ocean Decade.

II. Scope of work, purpose & responsibilities of the proposed work

Within the overall framework of the IOC Programme and Budget 2025-2026 and under the direct supervision of the Programme Specialist of the Marine Policy and Regional Coordination Section, and the overall supervision of the Chief of Section for Marine Policy and Regional Coordination, the consultant should support a variety of tasks, including data and information management and support to the coordination and delivery of programme activities. The consultant will therefore:

- Support the community of project reviewers, including organizing reviewer assignments, maintaining communication flows, and monitoring progress during the Calls for Decade Actions.

Attachment A – Terms of Reference (TOR)

- Conduct compliance and alignment assessments of Decade Action submissions to verify fulfilment of endorsement requirements and consistency with Ocean Decade objectives.
- Lead the Due Diligence process for Decade Actions.
- Assist in the preparation of endorsement documentation, including drafting and consolidating key elements required for endorsement memoranda.
- Contribute to onboarding processes for newly endorsed Decade Actions.
- Oversee updates to Decade Actions information across spreadsheets, databases, and platforms, including the Ocean Matcher, ensuring accuracy and consistency.
- Support the design and implementation of the Monitoring & Evaluation (M&E) process, including generating datasets and analytical inputs for the Annual Progress Report.
- Contribute to the preparation of meeting reports for the Decade Advisory Board.
- Support the development and improvement of online forms, workflows, and digital tools used across Decade Action processes.
- Co-manage the Ocean Decade general inbox, ensuring timely responses to enquiries.

III. Expected Outputs and deliverables

The consultant will produce work products associated with the Specific Tasks outlined above and participate in Ocean Decade meetings as well as provide regular updates on progress.

The below deliverables will be reviewed and approved by the Programme Specialist of the Marine Policy and Regional Coordination Section

IV. Proposed Methodology:

As part of the application for this position, the Consultant needs to provide a draft methodology. This should include:

1. Approach: Describe your overall strategy or framework for addressing the assignment's objectives.

Attachment A – Terms of Reference (TOR)

2. Steps and Processes: Provide a summary of the main steps you will follow, from initial research or analysis through to the final deliverables.
3. Adaptability: Explain any flexibility in your approach to allow for adjustments based on project needs or new findings.
4. Justification: Briefly justify why you believe this methodology is appropriate for achieving the desired outcomes of this assignment.

V. Supervisory arrangements

The consultant will be supervised by the Programme Specialist of the Marine Policy and Regional Coordination Section, and will be under the overall supervision of the Chief of Section for Marine Policy and Regional Coordination

The supervisor will brief the Consultant at the start of the contract, and a series of meetings will be organized to get the Consultant acquainted with the work of the Ocean Decade and the IOC Secretariat. Throughout the consultancy, weekly meetings will be scheduled with the supervisor to follow up on the tasks.

VI. Duration of work

The consultancy will be part-time for 7 months. The consultancy will be undertaken remotely with regular phone contact with the IOC Secretariat in Paris.

Please note that one working day is defined as 7.5 hours of work.

VII. Duty station

The consultant will be expected to work remotely, all travel costs related to this contract will be covered by UNESCO as per UNESCO's travel policy.

VIII. Facilities to be provided by UNESCO (if any)

UNESCO will provide the consultant with all required access to working files, UNESCO network, knowledge-management systems (including institutional email and Microsoft TEAMS accounts), and temporary office space if needed on occasional presence at UNESCO Headquarters.

IX. Facilities to be provided by the consultant (if any)

The consultant will provide his/her own computer, telephone and have access to a reliable internet connection.

1. GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Article I. Legal Status

1. Individual Specialist is neither a staff member under the UNESCO Staff Regulations and Staff Rules nor an official under the Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the Specialized Agencies (21 November 1947). He/she may, however, be given the status of 'expert on mission' within the meaning of Annex IV of the said Convention.
2. Any immunities and privileges that may be accorded the Individual Specialist by a government are conferred in the interests of UNESCO. Any such immunities and privileges shall not be invoked to excuse the Individual Specialist from discharging any private obligations or from observing laws and police regulations. Should a question of immunities and privileges arise, the Individual Specialist shall immediately report to the Director- General of UNESCO, who shall decide whether they shall be waived.

Article II. Obligations

1. The Individual Specialist is subject to the authority of the Director-General of UNESCO and is responsible to the Director-General in the performance of his/her work.
2. The Individual Specialist's responsibilities are exclusively international. By accepting a contract with UNESCO, the Individual Specialist undertakes to carry out the work given to him/her and to regulate his/her conduct with the interest of the Organization only in view.
3. In providing his/her service, the Individual Specialist shall neither seek, nor accept, any instructions from any government or any authority external to the Organization, except as may be authorized by the Director-General of UNESCO.
4. The Individual Specialist shall conduct him/herself at all times in a manner befitting his international status. He/she shall not engage in any activity that is incompatible with the performance of his/her work for UNESCO. He/she shall avoid any action and in particular any kind of public pronouncement that may adversely reflect on his/her status, or on the integrity, independence and impartiality that is required by that status. While he/she is not expected to give up his/her national sentiments, or his/her political and religious convictions, he/she shall at all times bear in mind the reserve and tact incumbent upon him/her by reason of his/her international status.
5. The Individual Specialist shall exercise the utmost discretion in regard to all matters of official business. He/she shall not communicate to any person unpublished information known to him/her by reason of his/her assignment, except by authorization of the Director- General of UNESCO. These obligations remain binding even after the expiry of the contract.
6. If the Individual Specialist, by malice, culpable negligence or failure to observe any applicable rule, involves UNESCO in unnecessary loss, expense or liability, he/she shall be held responsible and may be required to pay compensation.

Initials:

Article III. Declaration of Compatibility of the Professional Status

1. Family Ties

- (i) The Individual Specialist certifies that he/she is not the father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of a staff member of UNESCO, of an employee of the ancillary services or of someone who, at the same time, holds a supernumerary contract or contract for individual consultants or other specialists or has a fellowship with UNESCO.
- (ii) The Individual Specialist also certifies that, if he/she has a spouse working as a UNESCO staff member, or as an ancillary services employee, the spouse does not work in the same Sector, Bureau or field office in which the Individual Specialist will be working.

2. Multiple Contracts

- (i) The Individual Specialist certifies and declares that he/she only holds one contract of any type with UNESCO at any one time. Any failure to respect this condition renders this present contract liable for immediate termination, without notice or indemnity.
 - (ii) The Individual Specialist certifies and declares that he/she is not a beneficiary of any type of UNESCO Fellowship. Any failure to respect this condition renders this present contract liable for immediate termination, without notice or indemnity.
3. The Individual Specialist certifies and declares that he/she does not have incompatible professional status under UNESCO's provisions governing the contracts for individual consultants and other specialists.*

Article IV. Officials not to Benefit

The Individual Specialist confirms that no official of UNESCO has received from or will be offered by the Individual Specialist any direct or indirect benefit arising from this contract or the award thereof. The Individual Specialist accepts that breach of this provision is a breach of an essential term of this contract which renders this present contract liable for immediate termination, without notice or indemnity.

* In order to avoid the perception of lack of independence or conflict of interest, the individual selected for an assignment must not be:

- a fellow or a holder of another contract of any type with UNESCO at the same time as the proposed contract;
- a member of the Executive Board or an Alternate during his/her term of office until at least 18 months have elapsed from the date of cessation of their representational functions;
- a member of any UNESCO Committee, International Programme Governing Body or National Commission;
- the External Auditor and members of his or her staff who have participated in the audit of the Organization during the two financial periods (e.g. two biennia) following completion of their mandate;
- a member of the Oversight Advisory Committee for 5 years following the expiry of his/her term;
- other officials with oversight responsibilities, including members of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions (ACABQ), International Civil Service Commission (ICSC), Joint Inspection Unit (JIU) or other similar bodies in the United Nations system, who have had oversight responsibilities over UNESCO, during their service and within 4 years of ceasing that service.

Article V. Taxes

UNESCO will not reimburse any taxes, duties or other contributions for which the Individual Specialist may be liable in respect of any payments made to him/her under the terms of this contract.

Article VI. Use of Name, Emblem or Official Seal of UNESCO

The Individual Specialist shall not in any manner whatsoever advertise, display or appropriate for personal use the name, emblem or official seal of UNESCO, or any abbreviation of the name of UNESCO in connection with his/her business or otherwise.

Article VII. Confidential Nature of Documents and Information

Drawings, photographs, plans, reports, recommendations, estimates, documents and all other data compiled by or received by the Individual Specialist under this contract shall be the property of UNESCO, shall be treated as confidential and shall be delivered only to UNESCO authorized officials on completion of work under this contract.

Article VIII. Title Rights

UNESCO shall be entitled to all property rights, including but not limited to patents, copyrights and trademarks with regard to all material which bears a direct relation, to, or is made in consequence of, the services provided to the Organization by the Individual Specialist.

Article IX. Protection of Personal Data

1. The Individual Specialist shall ensure an appropriate protection of Personal Data he/she uses when performing his/her duties in accordance with UNESCO's Principles on Personal Data Protection and Privacy and the Personal Data Protection and Privacy Guidelines (Administrative Manual Chapter 17). Personal Data includes any information relating to a data subject who can be identified from that data, either directly or indirectly, by reference to this data and reasonably likely measures, and which is processed by or on behalf of UNESCO in carrying out its mandated activities.
2. Personal Data shall be processed solely for the purpose of undertaking the present contract and with due regard to confidentiality.
3. The Individual Specialist warrants and represents that he/she shall comply with the applicable UNESCO information security standards.
4. The Individual Specialist shall not access, collect, use, disclose or dispose of Personal Data in ways that do not comply with the Principles on Personal Data Protection and Privacy. He/she shall ensure that Personal Data is not released, used, handled or destroyed in unauthorized ways or otherwise ways that may pose risks of harms to individuals or groups of individuals.
5. The Individual Specialist shall immediately report a lost or stolen device containing Personal Data to the UNESCO IT Service Desk or Field Unit IT Support. The Individual Specialist shall promptly notify the staff responsible for the contract of any actual or suspected or threatened incident of accidental or unlawful destruction or accidental loss, alteration, unauthorized or accidental disclosure or access to Personal Data, or a breach of the present Article. The Parties shall consult with a view to addressing, reacting to, and resolving the situation.

6. The Individual Specialist shall notify staff responsible for the contract within 5 (five) working days of any complaint by a data subject in respect of his/her Personal Data.
7. The obligations and restrictions in the present Article shall be effective during the term of the present contract, including any extension thereof, and shall remain effective following the expiry date or the termination of the present contract, unless otherwise agreed between the parties in writing.
8. Unless otherwise agreed between the parties in writing, within 10 (ten) working days after expiry date or the termination of the present contract, whichever comes first, the Individual Specialist shall return all Personal Data collected and/or used for the performance of the present contract to the staff responsible for the contract in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format, and shall then delete and procure the deletion of all copies of those Personal Data. The Individual Specialist shall provide written confirmation to the staff responsible for the contract that he/she has fully complied with the requirements set out in the present Article within 10 (ten) working days after the expiry date or the termination of the present contract, whichever comes first.

Article X. Medical Clearance

The Individual Specialist certifies and declares that he/she: a) is in good health b) has no condition that would prevent him/her from carrying out the work as foreseen by this contract and c) has obtained any necessary inoculations or other medical treatment which may be necessary for him/her to travel to and work in the area(s) foreseen under this contract. The Individual Specialist will be held fully responsible for this certification and declaration. If requested, Individual Specialists may be required to undergo a full medical examination, and be medically cleared by UNESCO's Chief Medical Officer, prior to taking up their duties.

Article XI. Insurance

1. (i) The Individual Specialist shall be insured by UNESCO for work-related accidents, injuries, illnesses or death while performing duties on behalf of the Organization.
- (ii) The insurance provides for compensation in the case of: (a) death or permanent total disablement; (b) permanent partial disablement; (c) temporary total disablement. Coverage for temporary, partial disablement is not included. The capital sum insured shall be up to a maximum of 85 000 USD. The scale of compensation payable will be in accordance with the terms and conditions of UNESCO's policy with its insurer. Medical expenses attributable to work-incurred accidents or illnesses are paid up to a maximum annual amount of 10 000 USD.
- (iii) If any injury, illness or death for which compensation is payable under the above provisions is caused in circumstances which, in the UNESCO Director-General's opinion, create a legal liability on the part of a third party to pay damages, the Director-General may, as a condition of granting compensation, require the Individual Specialist to whom it is granted to assign to the Organization any rights of action which he/she may have against such a third party. The Individual Specialist shall thereupon furnish to UNESCO any data or evidence which may be available to him/her, and shall render all other assistance which may be required in prosecuting any claim or action against such a third party. He/she shall not settle any such claim or action without the consent of the Organization; UNESCO shall be entitled itself to do so or to require him/her to do so upon such terms as seem reasonable to it.
2. Other than the provisions set out in Article XI, paragraph 1(ii), UNESCO does not provide medical insurance to the Individual Specialist.

Article XII. Title to Equipment

Title to any equipment and supplies that may be furnished by UNESCO shall rest with UNESCO and any such equipment shall be returned to UNESCO at the conclusion of this contract or when no longer needed by the Individual Specialist. Such equipment, when returned to UNESCO, shall be in the same condition as when delivered to the Individual Specialist, subject to normal wear and tear. The Individual Specialist shall be liable to compensate UNESCO for equipment determined to be damaged or degraded beyond normal wear and tear.

Article XIII. Termination

1. UNESCO or the Individual Specialist may cancel the contract before it has come into effect by giving written notice to the other party. For contracts of less than 2 months the period of notice is 5 days, for longer contracts – 14 days. No compensation shall be payable in such cases. Should UNESCO cancel the contract with shorter notice, the Individual Specialist is entitled to 5% of payment for each month of service provided by the contract, subject to a maximum of 30% of the total amount.
2. Once the contract has come into effect, it may be terminated by either party at any time before the expiry date with 2 weeks written notice for contracts of 6 months or less, or 1 month's written notice if the contract is for more than 6 months. If UNESCO terminates the contract, the Individual Specialist is entitled to an indemnity of 5% of payment for each remaining aggregated period of service equivalent to one month, subject to a maximum payment of 30% of the total amount. In the event of termination by the Individual Specialist, or of the inability of the Individual Specialist to carry out fully its terms, UNESCO may deduct from any remaining payments due an amount equivalent to any losses caused to the Organization, taking into consideration the extent to which the assignment has been completed.
3. Notwithstanding the provisions of Article XIII, paragraphs 1 and 2, in the event of breach of contract, including false declarations, on the part of the Individual Specialist, the contract may be immediately terminated by UNESCO without notice or indemnity.

Article XIV. Arbitration

1. Any controversy or dispute concerning the execution or interpretation of this contract shall be settled by negotiation between the parties. If it is not amicably settled, it shall be submitted, at the initiative of either party, either to the Chairperson of the UNESCO Appeals Board or be the subject of an arbitration under the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL) Arbitration Rules in force. The arbitrator shall rule upon the costs of arbitration, which shall be either apportioned between the two parties or paid by one of them only. The arbitral award shall be final and irrevocable.
2. The party initiating the procedure shall decide which of the two procedures shall apply.

Article XV. Amendments

Attachment B – UNESCO Template for contracts for Individual Consultants

This contract may be amended specifying all modifications and signed by both UNESCO and the Individual Specialist prior to the expiry date of the present contract. If the Individual Specialist wishes to propose amendments, these proposals should be communicated to UNESCO which, if deemed necessary, will prepare the amendment to present contract for mutual agreement and signature.
